

AMC LIONS (Long Island Orthodox Networking)

Mission Statement

Develop and foster a professional and personal connection between the Archangel Michael Church's Greek Orthodox youth and experienced members to: promote a culture of service, leadership and opportunity; share information, experiences and knowledge with each other; offer advice, actionable steps, programs and events to successfully navigate and advance their academic and professional journey; and to pay it forward for others along the way

Mentor Network

Engage high school & college students, young professionals, and established professionals to serve as mentors/mentees for each other. Interactions, both formal and informal, can include - quarterly check-ins, mock interviews, networking opportunities, lunches.

Live Events

Organize at least 2 marquee events bringing the entire community together. In addition, host a few smaller events during the year for targeted workshops (e.g., interview skills, college application process, job fair).

Virtual Events

Provide mechanism to keep mentor network engaged with timely online events, especially for college students who are geographically dispersed. Virtual workshops and fireside chats can include wellness & mindfulness, college application process, resume writing, job interview skills, and various professional skills (e.g. investment/finance, law, medicine, trades).

Website/Social Media

Expand content offerings on website to build out a resource center for high school and college students and young professionals to access anytime. Engage with community using other social media (LinkedIn, Instagram, Tik Tok, Facebook).

“You will guide me with Your counsel, And afterward receive me to glory.” ~Psalm 73:24
