Greek Class Description:

Beginner Level:

For those without prior knowledge of Modern Greek, introduction to the alphabet, correct pronunciation, grammar, and syntax of the Greek language. Basic vocabulary, simple present tense, noun gender, adjectives, and simple sentence structure are included. Reading, listening and writing skills are developed. The conversation is emphasized in everyday situations.

Intermediate Level:

More advanced cultural and literary passages. Vocabulary is expanded and dialogues are more sophisticated. Students learn the simple past and simple future tenses, and more complex sentence structure. Class conducted entirely in Greek. Emphasis on conversation and active participation is always emphasized.

Advanced Level:

Students in this class will read advanced material to improve their reading skills and vocabulary. They will focus on developing vocabulary and expressions for use in everyday life. Role-playing exercises, oral drills, and reading from modern Greek literature will be included. The class will be conducted entirely in Greek.

Teen conversation

This course helps the students to practice listening more attentively and speaking more confidently. Students develop conversational skills in order to communicate in all everyday situations. The lesson is supported by textbooks, videos, songs, and teaching techniques that help with their fluency without homework!
