The Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee

The Beginning of the Triodion – A Journey of Humility and Renewal

This Sunday marks the first step on our journey toward Great Lent, as we enter the sacred period of the Triodion, the liturgical book that guides us through the coming weeks of spiritual preparation. The Church, in her wisdom, begins this journey with the Parable of the Publican and the Pharisee (Luke 18:10-14), a story that teaches us about the true nature of humility, repentance, and God's boundless mercy.

In the parable, two men enter the Temple to pray. The Pharisee proudly recounts his good works, fasting, and tithing, thanking God that he is not like other sinners. The Publican, standing far off, does not even lift his eyes to heaven but beats his chest in sorrow, crying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." Christ tells us that it was the humble Publican—not the self-righteous Pharisee—who went home justified before God.

The lesson of this parable is central to our spiritual lives. Salvation is not earned through outward righteousness alone, but through a heart that humbly seeks God's mercy. As St. John Chrysostom teaches, "Humility is the root, mother, nurse, foundation, and bond of all virtue." True spiritual growth begins when we lay aside pride and open ourselves to the healing grace of God.

At times, we may feel burdened by our sins, believing we are unworthy of God's love. The Publican's prayer reminds us that no matter how far we have strayed, God's mercy is always greater than our sins. "Do not despair, however many times you fall," says St. John Climacus. "Stand up and say: 'Now I have begun!' and you shall be saved." This is the heart of repentance—not dwelling on our failures, but turning back to God with trust in His forgiveness.

The beginning of the Triodion calls us to examine our hearts. Are we truly seeking God's mercy, or are we relying on our own self-righteousness? Are we quick to judge others, or do we recognize our own need for grace? Like the Publican, we are invited to come before God in humility, not with fear, but with confidence in His boundless love.

To emphasize the spirit of renewal, the Church does not impose fasting this week—even on Wednesday and Friday—reminding us that the foundation of our spiritual life is not just discipline, but grace. Fasting, prayer, and repentance are not burdens, but invitations to deeper communion with God, leading us to the joy of His Kingdom.

As we enter this sacred season, let us leave behind the weight of pride and despair, and embrace the hope found in Christ's mercy. No matter where we are on our spiritual path, we are never beyond God's love. Let us, like the Publican, turn to Him with a humble and trusting heart, knowing that He is always ready to receive us with open arms.

Κυριακή του Τελώνου και του Φαρισαίου

Η Έναρξη του Τριωδίου – Περίοδος Μετάνοιας και Ελπίδας

Αυτή την Κυριακή, η Εκκλησία μας εισέρχεται στην περίοδο του Τριωδίου, μια πορεία πνευματικής προετοιμασίας που οδηγεί στη Μεγάλη Σαρακοστή. Η πρώτη διδασκαλία αυτής της πορείας είναι η Παραβολή του Τελώνου και του Φαρισαίου, που μας διδάσκει την αληθινή ταπείνωση και τη δύναμη της μετάνοιας.

Ο Φαρισαίος προσεύχεται με υπερηφάνεια, υπενθυμίζοντας τις καλές του πράξεις, ενώ ο Τελώνης, γεμάτος συναίσθηση της αμαρτωλότητάς του, προσεύχεται απλά: «Ο Θεός, ιλάσθητί μοι τῷ ἀμαρτωλῷ». Ο Κύριος μας βεβαιώνει ότι εκείνος που ταπεινώθηκε έφυγε δικαιωμένος.

Ο Άγιος Ιωάννης ο Χρυσόστομος μας υπενθυμίζει: «Η ταπεινοφροσύνη είναι η ρίζα, η μητέρα, η τροφός, το θεμέλιο και ο δεσμός κάθε αρετής». Η σωτηρία δεν έρχεται μέσα από την αυτοδικαίωση αλλά μέσα από την ειλικρινή μετάνοια. Ο Άγιος Ιωάννης της Κλίμακος μας προτρέπει: «Μην απελπίζεσαι όσες φορές κι αν πέσεις. Σήκω και πες: 'Τώρα ξεκινώ!' και θα σωθείς».

Το μήνυμα αυτής της Κυριακής είναι μήνυμα ελπίδας. Ο Θεός μας καλεί να επιστρέψουμε κοντά Του, όχι με φόβο, αλλά με εμπιστοσύνη στη συγχώρεσή Του. Καθώς αρχίζει το Τριώδιο, ας κάνουμε μια νέα αρχή, αφήνοντας πίσω μας το βάρος της υπερηφάνειας και της απελπισίας. Ο Χριστός μας περιμένει πάντα με ανοιχτή αγκαλιά.

Prokeimenon. Mode pl. 4. Psalm 75.

Pray and return to the Lord Your God.

Verse: In Judah God is known; His name is great in Israel.

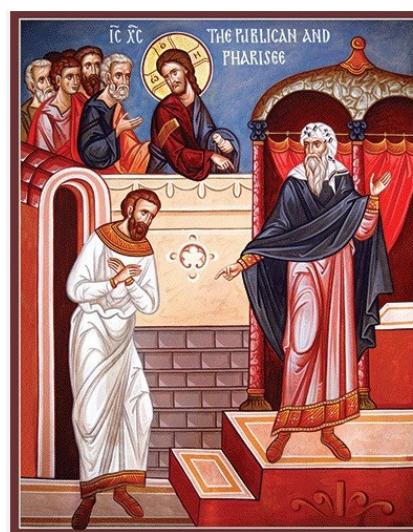

The reading is from Paul's Second Letter to Timothy.

2 Tim. 3:10 – 15

Timothy, my son, you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, my sufferings, what befell me at Antioch, at Iconion, and at Lystra, what persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. Indeed all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil men and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceivers and deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings which are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

The Gospel According to Luke 18:9-14

The Lord said this parable, “Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.’ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me a sinner!’ I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”
